Photography Challenges

Month of Photography

The Sunday edition of the Denver Post has an article on the Month of Photography. This event is run by the Colorado Photographic Art Center (CPAC) in Denver. This event features 1000+ plus photographers whose work is spread over 100+ venues across Colorado and stretches over two months. This is the link to the CPAC website <https://cpacphoto.org/month-of-photography/>

City Nature Challenge

April 26-29

Can Fort Collins residents find the most wildlife and plants? Everyone is invited to join the friendly competition between cities across the world, City Nature Challenge. Get outside and collect scientific data!
